Sanjay Gandhi Post-Graduate Institute of Medical Sciences Department of Maternal & Reproductive Health Raebareilly Road, Lucknow – 226014 GENERAL INFORMATION

Phone. No.: OPD counter: 05222495603, USG counter: 05222495633

- You are welcome to the Department of Maternal and Reproductive Health OPD.
- The department looks after patients with complicated pregnancy, previous or ongoing. You need to register yourself in the counter located at the entry of PMSSY building.
- If you are a new patient, your detail history will be recorded and all your previous treatment records will be reviewed. This will take time and you have to keep patience. Patients are seen serially as per the entry in OPD of the department.
- After you are seen by the doctor you need to get your investigations done.
- Collect the necessary investigation form from the counter at Hall no 14,
 MRH OPD and go to the cash counter to deposit money. Cash counter is situated on the ground floor of this building, right hand side of the entrance.
- Go to the sample collection area situated just opposite the cash counter for giving all samples. Sample collection closes at 4.00 PM (Monday to Friday) and 12.00 PM (Saturday).
- If required, USG will be done the same day or a date will be given to you for the same. As per government requirement patient's photo identity proof is necessary for USG during pregnancy. Please ensure that you give it at the USG counter and fill up "F form".
- USG will be done serially which takes time. In case you feel hungry or have other work you can go for the same.
- USG report will be made available in the USG counter the same day or the next day of the test after 2.00 PM except for those where there is some abnormality.
- In case you have an emergency please let us know at the reception counter. The whole process may take 4 to 6 hours and we expect your cooperation.

- Please take appointment for your next antenatal visit from the reception counter before leaving for home.
- We wish you a healthy life.
