

Aim Of Program:

To enhance the knowledge, clinical competence, and professional skills of nurses through a structured Longitudinal Training Program focused on critical areas such as CAUTI bundle, ICU patient care, conflict management, bedsores prevention and management, and bone marrow transplant (Pre BMT) patient workup, nursing documentation, Oxygen therapy, ICU Quality indicator, thereby promoting evidence-based practice, patient safety, and the exchange of knowledge among nursing professionals.

Specific Objectives:

1. To upgrade knowledge and skills of nurses in applying evidence-based care practices related to CAUTI prevention, ventilator care, and pressure injury management.
2. To promote adherence to standard care bundles and protocols ensuring improved patient safety and quality of care.
3. To strengthen decision-making and problem-solving abilities in managing complex clinical scenarios including BMT patient care and critical care interventions.
4. To develop effective communication and conflict management skills, Nursing documentation for fostering teamwork, collaboration, and a positive clinical environment.