

Roles and Responsibilities of NAMS

- To promote knowledge of bio-medical sciences in India and its application to problems of national health and welfare.
- To recognize and encourage merit in all branches of bio-medical and allied sciences and to confer distinctions, awards and such honours on Fellows/ Officers and others, commensurate with their achievements.
- To undertake bio-medical scientific research of national and international importance and to assist the Government of India and its agencies in framing policies and programmes on biomedical and public health issues.
- Promoting medical education by conducting CME in medical institutions throughout the country.
- To publish proceedings, journals, monographs, transactions, reports and other material as and when necessary.
- To encourage talent and recognize merit of health and biomedical students, NAMS has established Orations & Awards.
- To undertake medical scientific work of national and international importance through properly constituted committees