Office Order

Consumer/Medical Negligence cases filed against the Institute are very crucial in nature, involves prompt monitoring till its disposal & duration of the pendency is uncertain.

Due to superannuation/resignation of treating consultants/faculties, recurring lapses are being faced in filing of statements & versions in the consumer/medical negligence cases, filed against the Institute before various Forums, Commissions and Courts.

To ensure smooth filing of statements & versions of the Institute, Head of the Departments are hereby entrusted responsibility to look after all consumer/medical negligence cases of the superannuated faculties of their department or faculties who've left the Institute.

Head of the Department will provide the comments and verify the contents of the Written Statement/applications/appeals drafted by the counsels, in consonance with records of the Institute/patient/treatment.
