

2.6.1 Methods of assessment of learning outcomes and graduate attributes

1. The institute runs 74 programs in different subjects.
2. Each program has defined syllabus which is adequately displayed on institute website and available to the candidates taking the examination. The syllabi are prepared by the subject experts according to the regulatory bodies and approved in academic board of the institute
3. Each syllabus has got definite graduate attributes, program outcome ( PO) and course outcome ( CO). Each learning point is linked to its outcome analysis.
4. An introductory workshop is conducted at the beginning of the session and students are familiarized with the programs,
5. Time to time workshops are done to update the students' knowledge.
6. Students' logbooks are given in the beginning of the program which contain the different learning points.
7. The academic calendar helps in preparing the students about the timeline of programs and POs, Cos.
8. Students are assessed on a day-to-day basis in i) Cognitive Domain ii) Affective Domain iii) Psychomotor Domain
8. The students are assessed by six-monthly examinations and annual examinations. The final exit examination involved faculty from other institutes to assess the students.
9. The feedback system from students is an integral part of POs and Cos.
10. The POs and Cos in Cognitive domain, affective domain and psychomotor domain are assessed by day-to-day theory classes, tutorials, cases presentation, viva-voce, patient interactions, practical laboratory examinations, patient examination, emergency cases,

MCQs, OSPEs/OSCEs, examination on simulators, journal club presentation, paper presentation, conference presentation etc.

Graduate Attributes

1. Strong theoretical knowledge and practical skills in the subjects
2. Good problem solving capabilities
3. Sympathetic nature to patients.
4. Good communication and interpersonal skills.
5. Excellent leadership qualities
6. Rational and orientation towards research
7. Good citizens and society responsibilities.

Lt Col Varun Bajpai VSM
Executive Registrar
SGPGIMS, Lucknow

